Easter

Easter, also called Pascha (Greek, Latin) or Resurrection Sunday, is a festival and holiday celebrating the resurrection of Jesus from the dead, described in the New Testament as having occurred on the third day of his burial after his crucifixion by the Romans at Calvary c. 30 AD. It is the culmination of the Passion of Jesus, preceded by Lent (or Great Lent), a forty-day period of fasting, prayer, and penance.

Most Christians refer to the week before Easter as "Holy Week"—it contains the days of the Easter Triduum, including Maundy Thursday, commemorating the Maundy and Last Supper, as well as Good Friday, commemorating the crucifixion and death of Jesus. In Western Christianity, Eastertide, or the Easter Season, begins on Easter Sunday and lasts seven weeks, ending with the coming of the fiftieth day, Pentecost Sunday. In Eastern Christianity, the season of Pascha begins on Pascha and ends with the coming of the fortieth day, the Feast of the Ascension.

Easter and the holidays that are related to it are moveable feasts which do not fall on a fixed date in the Gregorian or Julian calendars which follow only the cycle of the sun; rather, its date is determined on a lunisolar calendar similar to the Hebrew calendar. The First Council of Nicaea established two rules, independence of the Jewish calendar and worldwide uniformity, which were the only rules for Easter explicitly laid down by the council. No details for the computation were specified; these were worked out in practice, a process that took centuries and generated a number of controversies. It has come to be the first Sunday after the ecclesiastical full moon that occurs on or soonest after 21 March, but calculations vary.

Easter is linked to the Jewish Passover by much of its symbolism, as well as by its position in the calendar. In most European languages the feast called Easter in English is termed by the words for passover in those languages and in the older English versions of the Bible the term Easter was the term used to translate passover. Easter customs vary across the Christian world, and include sunrise services, exclaiming the Paschal greeting, clipping the church, and decorating Easter eggs (symbols of the empty tomb). The Easter lily, a symbol of the resurrection, traditionally decorates the chancel area of churches on this day and for the rest of Eastertide. Additional customs that have become associated with Easter and are observed by both Christians and some non-Christians include egg hunting, the Easter Bunny, and Easter parades. There are also various traditional Easter foods that vary regionally.

A light hearted poem just for Easter.

Easter Bonnet Fantasy

If I were to get a new Easter bonnet
There are just a few things I'd like to see upon it

One white bow and another of pink
A bunch of daisies, and I also think

It should have a rose, and a lovebird or two
Plus a wide floppy brim, to keep off the dew

An ostrich feather, and one from a peacock
To show that I'm hip and ready to rock

A pineapple will be the crowning touch
Though quibblers might say it's a bit too much

And they could have a point, for this hat's getting big
So maybe I'll settle for a new Easter wig.

A little poem from Mary Cooke. ~

My face in the mirror
Isn't wrinkled or drawn.

My house isn't dusty
The cobwebs have gone.

My garden looks lovely
And so does my lawn.

I think I might never
Put my glasses back on!

New Year , new offerings! As we progress into 2018, new protocols have been put in place for Outings. Money and/or tickets for your bus fare will be collected one week prior to the outings and will be non-refundable. This is to help prevent last minute cancellations, which have become prevalent. When a person cancels at the last minute, it affects many things: kitchen lunch counts, bus size reservations, lunch reservations and quite often may reduce the size of the group to just a few (there is a minimum of 5 for an outing). Add to that the disappointment of your fellow attendees who were looking forward to your company and the extra work now required to make all the changes, and you can understand why this seemingly innocuous act has more than a minor impact.

The other major change is that prices for alcohol at Happy Hour are increasing to $4 per glass of wine or bottle of beer. This is still approximately only one third of the cost compared to outside establishments, and is required to cover the cost of both alcohol and snacks. Prices of pop will remain $1.50. If you bring your own drinks, but eat the snacks provided by those who pay, please “donate” to the pot so that others are not paying for your snacks.

Be sure to see the sign-up sheets at Reception and put your name down for activities and outings you wish to be included in. Spaces are filling quickly! Bus requests must be faxed to HandyDart at least 10 days in advance of the outings, so please sign up early!

Just a reminder from the Kitchen to please use styro-foam plates & bowls if you are taking food back to your room. Thank You! Also the protocol for coffee and tea at the Bistro require a lid for your cup—they are provided for you. This helps keep the carpet cleaner by preventing spills as you try to balance that hot cup of beverage! Thank You!
