Summer 2018

We love to paint at Arbourside! Here most of us are painting the silhouette of cranes against an evening sky, but Alan, of course, special painter that he is, produced this gorgeous English country house scene.

Picnics are a favourite during the summer months. Above, we are enjoying our lunches beside the Fraser River, at Derby Reach Park in Langley. We were worried when we saw our favourite picnic tables covered in water during the spring flood, but everything's back to normal now!

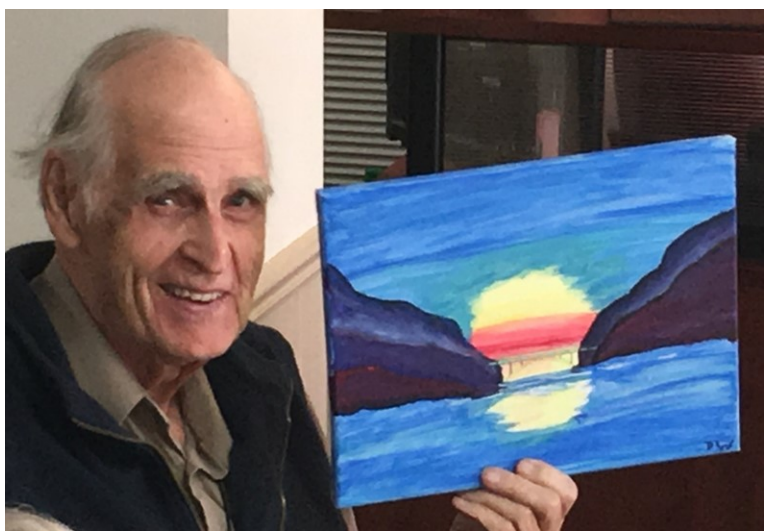

Below, we are enjoying the peaceful sounds of nature at Redwood Park in South Surrey, close the Hazelmore area. If you walk through the forest, you will come upon a "Fairy Garden" where visitors have hung hand painted houses for the fairies, as well as other conveniences for them.

Amazing painting by Alan—he decided to do a different bridge than ours. Isn't his artwork incredible? Lunch at the Red Rose Restaurant was well attended by the lovers of nosh! Junes Birthday Bash was a huge success and a gorgeous cake decorated by Ygor. Let's not forget our Jasdeep and her friendly companion Eddie, an English Springer Spaniel. They visit every Sunday morning to get the day started with lots of love and kisses and hugs. Make sure you lcome down and have a visit with Ed-die—he's always looking for a friendly pat and loves those milk bones!

Lunch at Westwood Plateau Golf & Country Club. This was our special bus June trip to Belcarra, through IOCO, and sightseeing all the way home. The view was gorgeous, the food excellent, and the company—well, what can I say—Magnificent! July's bus trip will be taking us through West Vancouver, lunch at Horsehoe Bay at C-Lovers, home via lower Marine Drive, through Stanley Park, along the water of Vancouver past Spanish Banks, UBC Endowment Lands, and home.

We were so sad to see our |Volunteer, Rossy, leave us for the summer. But we are super happy that she finally gets to spend the summer with her Preants and Grand-parents, who live in Bei-jing, China. It's been 2 years since their last vis-it—too long!

Someone suggested we try the Buffet lunch at Newlands Golf & Country Club, and were we ever glad we did! Besides a good variety of many entrees and desserts, we had a bird's eye view of the 18th hole and the price was amazing for the quality!
