The Arby Arbourside Community Newsletter June 2019

On June 19, 1910, a Father's Day celebration was held at the YMCA in Spokane, Washington by Sonora Smart Dodd. Her father, the civil war veteran William Jackson Smart, was a single parent who raised his six children there. She was also a member of Old Centenary Presbyterian Church (now Knox Presbyterian Church), where she first proposed the idea. After hearing a sermon about Jarvis Mother's Day in 1909 at Central Methodist Episcopal Church, she told her pastor that fathers should have a similar holiday to honor them. Although she initially suggested June 5, her father's birthday, the pastors did not have enough time to prepare their sermons, and the celebration was deferred to the third Sunday in June. Several local clergymen accepted the idea, and on June 19, 1910, the first Father's Day, "sermons honoring fathers were presented throughout the city".<sup>1</sup>

However, in the 1920s, Dodd stopped promoting the celebration because she was studying at the Art Institute of Chicago, and it faded into relative obscurity, even in Spokane. In the 1930s, Dodd returned to Spokane and started promoting the celebration again, raising awareness at a national level. She had the help of those trade groups that would benefit most from the holiday, for example the manufacturers of ties, tobacco pipes, and any traditional present for fathers. By 1938, she had the help of the Father's Day Council, founded by the New York Associated Men's Wear Retailers to consolidate and systematize the holiday's commercial promotion. Americans resisted the holiday for its first few decades, viewing it as nothing more than an attempt by merchants to replicate the commercial success of Mother's Day, and newspapers frequently featured cynical and sarcastic attacks and jokes. However, the said merchants remained resilient and even incorporated these attacks into their advertisements. By the mid-1980s, the Father's Day Council wrote, "(...) [Father's Day] has become a Second Christmas for all the men's gift-oriented industries."

A bill to accord national recognition of the holiday was introduced in Congress in 1913. In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson went to Spokane to speak at a Father's Day celebration and he wanted to make it an officially recognized federal holiday, but Congress resisted, fearing that it would become commercialized. US President Calvin Coolidge recommended in 1924 that the day be observed throughout the entire nation, but he stopped short at issuing a national proclamation. Two earlier attempts to formally recognize the holiday had been defeated by Congress. In 1957, Maine Senator Margaret Chase Smith wrote a Father's Day proposal accusing Congress of ignoring fathers for 40 years while honoring mothers, thus "[singling] out just one of our two parents". In 1966, President Lyndon B. Johnson issued the first presidential proclamation honoring fathers, designating the third Sunday in June as Father's Day. Six years later, the day was made a permanent national holiday when President Richard Nixon signed it into law in 1972.

In Canada, Fathers' Day is always celebrated on the third Sunday of June and is typically celebrated by time spent with Fathers, family celebrations and gift giving.

Evelyn was the lone candle blower for our May Birthday Party. It took her a lot of blows to finally get them all out—she really earned her piece of cake!

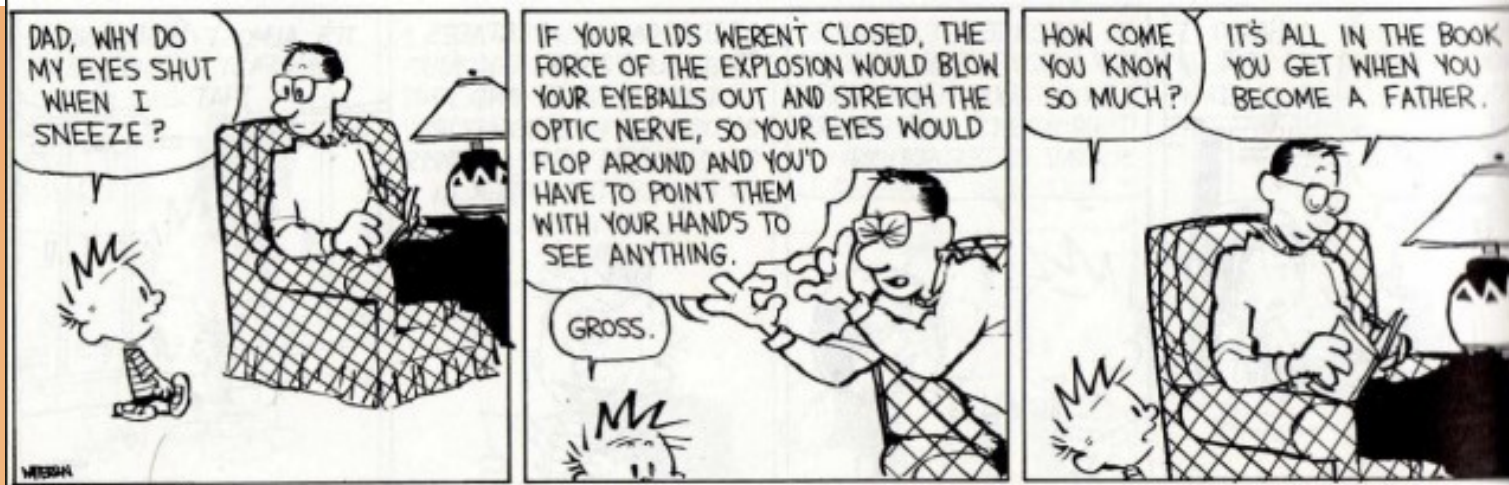

The Mothers' Day Tea on Friday May 10th was a huge success. Doris Mason's daughters, Bev and Brenda donated a beautiful cake in their Mom's memory and helped set up and serve tea. Special Volunteers were Nikki and Susan and Karam, and without their help none of this would have been possible. There were 20 free raffle prizes, mostly from 5th Avenue Jewelry, and free carnations for all who attended. The trays were prepared by our kitchen and were gorgeous and delicious! Tables were decorated with bone china tea cups for this occasion. Thank You Everyone for sharing this special time with us. All leftovers were donated to a women's shelter so the Mom's there could feel special too.

Really Bad Dad jokes (and you thought mine were bad...):

1. I have a fear of speed bumps. I'm slowly getting over it.
2. Dad: Be careful standing near those trees.
Daughter: Why? The sky is clear and there's no chance of lightning.
Dad: I don't know really. They just look kind of shady to me.
3. Nurse: Do you smoke?
Dad: Only when I'm on fire.
4. **Holding a stepladder**
This is my stepladder. I never knew my real ladder.
5. Dad: If you're cold you should sit in the corner.
Me: Why?
Dad: Because it's 90 degrees!
6. **Reversing the car**
Ahh, this takes me back.
7. How many apples grow on a tree?
All of them.
8. **Dad finds a suitcase in the woods filled with three raccoons. He calls the police.**
Dispatcher: This is 911, how can I help you?
Dad: Hi, I just found a suitcase filled with three raccoons.
Dispatcher: That's awful. Are they moving?
Dad: No. That would explain the suitcase, though.
9. I used to be addicted to the hokey pokey. But then I turned myself around.
10.
Me
: I'll call you later.
Dad: Don't call me later, call me Dad.
11. Granddad at my Grandma's funeral.
Me: Are you alright?
Grandad: No, I'm half left.
12. What do you call a man with no nose and no body?
Nobody nose.
13. **A bug hits the windshield while driving**
Bet he doesn't have the guts to do that again.

This month she is here on Wednesday the 5th for a special Father's Day shop and again on the 24th for a special Canada Day shop!

Arbourside Staff Room Ste. 100

This is the staff's break room—please respect it by not entering without knocking and being requested to do so. Only knock if there is an emergency and front desk staff are not available. We all thank you!

Bingo and Reno Keno

Just a reminder that these games are first come first served with respect to seating. No one owns a certain spot. Please welcome new Residents to join you as they navigate their way through a new home setting and routine.

Yay!

Summer is finally arriving and this month our bus trip is to Shannon Falls with a picnic lunch, returning via lower Marine Drive along the coastline. We also have four picnics planned elsewhere, so check out the calendar and sign up sheets and get your name on the list early—spots on the bus go very quickly!

Coffee Klatch is June 26th—be sure to attend this meeting to have your say in upcoming events and outings. We like suggestions!

From the Activities Department, a.k.a. Wendy

This month we are fortunate to have Nicki with us as she completes her practicum. Therefore I have tried to fill the calendar with as many events as we can (check out all the picnics!) while she is here – we’re sure going to miss her when she leaves on June 21st! A sun tent has been purchased by Activities for use on our outings. This way even if there are no picnic tables in the shade, we can create our own—yay!

Money and/or tickets for your bus fare will be collected one week prior to the outings and will be non-refundable. This is to help prevent last minute cancellations, which have become prevalent. When a person cancels at the last minute, it affects many things: kitchen lunch counts, bus size reservations, lunch reservations and quite often may reduce the size of the group to just a few (there is a minimum of 5 for an outing). Add to that the disappointment of your fellow attendees who were looking forward to your company and the extra work now required to make all the changes, and you can understand why this seemingly innocuous act has more than a minor impact.

Prices for alcohol at Happy Hour are $4 per glass of wine or bottle of beer. This is still approximately only one third of the cost compared to outside establishments, and is required to cover the cost of both alcohol and snacks. Prices of pop remain $1.50. If you bring your own drinks, but eat the snacks provided by those who pay, please “donate” to the pot so that others are not paying for your snacks.

VIP: It is duly noted that at times there are so many activities on Wednesdays, that often Bingo at 7:00 does not fit on the calendar. Please be assured that there is Bingo EVERY Wednesday Evening, without fail.

Also missing on this month’s calendar on the 28th, is that Happy Hour will be FREE for all Father’s in honour of Fathers’ Day.

NEIGHBOURHOOD NEWS

Welcome

Hello to Donna & Vic Tidder, Anna Kovacs and Lee Wirtz. and We would like to extend a warm welcome and wish you much happiness in your new home and neighbourhood.

In Hospital

Jake Ruscheinsky, Iselda Zanocco and Rita Gaboury are in the hospital. We wish you well and hope to see you at home soon!

Passed

Win Robertson passed on in May. We will miss her spunk, humour and love for all animals. Our thoughts and prayers to her Family and Friends.

This month we painted rocks to place around the community as a small beautification project. This is conjunction and done with permission from the Newton Downtown Business Association. These rocks were “planted” at the base of trees on 137th avenue, mainly around the Espresso Café. It’s interesting to see how many are actually picked up and taken home to beautify some ones place of repose.

We had our first Picnic on the Patio on a beautiful Friday afternoon. It was a huge success with many suggesting it should become a regular event. Check July’s calendar when it comes out to see if it is... We even brought our own Fraser Pond, complete with a duck, fish, and fishing rods. Nothing’s too good for Arbourside Residents!
